

Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope that this finds you all safe and well. We have been sent information about a blog that has been set-up by Liverpool City Council's Early Help team. The blog includes resources and information covering such areas as home learning, museums and places to visit online, ideas for playing together, ways to maintain a routine and managing wellbeing. The blog can be found at the following address: <https://www.cultureliverpool.co.uk/parenting-through-covid-19/>.

Stay safe,

Mrs. Rice
